As an association we promote good bee keeping practices and encourage our members to be well informed. We ask all beekeeping members to register on BeeBase so that they can be informed of any notifiable pest or diseases near their colonies. We are asking members if they agree to us sharing their up-to-date contact details through our data base to BeeBase with the National Bee Unit (NBU). Both BDI and NBU believe this is a valuable additional way to improve the accuracy of BeeBase and enable the bee inspectors to find apiaries more quickly and efficiently when required. The information that will be shared will be name and address, email and telephone number, membership number and which association you belong to. Please confirm you agree to your details being shared through our data systems No data will be passed without the member giving their permission.
